K. D. KING, FORMERLY OF DALLAS, BURIED IN LOS ANGELES.

Impressive funeral services for the late K. D. King were held in Roberts Funeral Chapel on Saturday at 2 o'clock. The Rev. A. Milton Ward officiated, assisted by Rev. J. C. Anderson and Chaplain Prolean. Mrs. M. Jenkins sang very touchingly "No Night There," and members of the Eighth and Towne Avenue African M. E. church choir sang favorite hymns. A large gathering of friends, including members of high rank in the Masonic Fraternity, crowded the chapel. The casket rested in an embankment of beautiful flowers. B. F. Talbot, Lodge No. 8 of the F. & A. M. was in charge of the body and conducted the last sad rites.

Mr. King had been sick for about two months, but seemingly was much improved; to the extent that he rose daily and sat with the family in the home; but ere the time came for him to arise on Thursday morning, Dec. 29, he passed silently and peacefully away seemingly without a struggle, at his late home, 3434 Budlong Avenue.

Mr. King was born in Mississippi, reared in Bryan, Texas, and a graduate of Prairie View Normal school. He lived most of his life in Dallas, Texas, from whence he came to this city with his wife less than one year ago. He was converted when a boy and united with the A. M. E. church where he held many important positions, including his favorite post in the choir. He was married to Miss Ella Scott more than 24 years ago, and they lived happily together until death did them part. He was a high Mason, an Odd Fellow and a Knight of Pythias. He was a devout Christian and a loving and devoted husband, a good neighbor, a consistent church member and good citizen.

On coming to Los Angeles he united with 8th and Towne Avenue church. He is survived by his widow, foster son, two brothers, three sisters, other relatives and a host of friends who mourn their loss.

SAYS ANTI-WHITE FEELING RISES IN AFRICA.

(By A. N. P.)
London, Eng., Jan. 12.—(By Mail) Anti-white feeling is fast increasing among the natives in various parts of Africa, states Reuters in an article "based on documentary and other evidence obtained at first hand by an authoritative British observer, who has visited every part of Africa."

Reuters' informant emphasizes the growing confusion of native races throughout the continent. He says the strongest factor in the development of antipathy to the whites is skillful propaganda fostered by an extreme section of American Negroes.

"Circulars coming from Londonist sources in India and Egypt and from Pan-American societies in the United States translated into five of the principal African languages are distributed in enormous numbers throughout Africa," the traveler states. "Booklets of twenty-five to thirty pages urge that the time has arrived for the black races to assert themselves and throw off the white yoke."

"It is only fair to say," adds the authoritative British observer, "that these are not received with universal sympathy, but the very unsettling effect is easily to be observed."

He has met it in the union of South Africa, in French equatorial Africa, and in lesser degree in Uganda, in Nyasaland, Belgian Congo, Abyssinia and Kenya.

"It is wonderful the extent to which the war has produced fraternal feelings among natives, but in present circumstances they tend to become anti-European," he continues.

"The main reason is the growth of
